SEARCH WARRANT EXECUTED AT R.I. NAMBA CONSTRUCTION

Attorney General Earl I. Anzai announced today that investigators from the Department of the Attorney General executed a search warrant at R.I. Namba Construction, located at 3445 Ala Akulikuli Street. The search took place in conjunction with the on-going investigation into forgery, theft and bribery related to small purchase contracts awarded at the Honolulu International Airport. Arrested at the scene were Richard I. Namba, president of R.I. Namba Construction for the offenses of Theft in the First Degree and Bribery, and Jodie Y. Namba, Vice-President of R.I. Namba Construction for the offense of Theft in the First Degree. Both individuals were transported to the District Court Cell block for booking and released pending investigation.

The Department of the Attorney General asks any individuals/companies with information related to small maintenance contracts at the Honolulu International Airport to contact the Investigations Division of the Department of the Attorney General at 586-1240.
