News Release No. 2006-18

Department of the Attorney General will auction forfeited property

(HONOLULU) A public auction of property forfeited to the State of Hawaii will be held at the Neal S. Blaisdell Center, on June 24, 2006. Some of the property to be sold includes a '00 Toyota Tacoma X-tra Cab P/U, a '00 Toyota Tundra P/U, a '97 Plymouth Van, a '96 Chevrolet Tahoe 4dr, a '95 Chevrolet S-10 P/U, and a modified '93 Honda Civic H/B (turbo, intercooler, suspension, rims, carbon fiber hood, hatch and roof spoiler, DVD in-dash stereo, turbo timer and gauges). In addition to these and other vehicles, there will also be assorted stereo equipment, televisions (two 32" JVC TV's, one still in the box), tools (Snap-on and Craftsman tool boxes w/ assorted hand and power tools), jewelry, and other property.

The property to be sold may be inspected starting at 11:00 a.m. on June 24, 2006. The auction, conducted by Rosen Auctions, will begin at noon. For a list of the property, visit www.rosenauctions.com.

The auction is the result of ongoing efforts by state and county law enforcement agencies to fight crime by seizing and forfeiting assets used or acquired in connection with criminal activities. Assets that were used in, or obtained from, the commission of certain criminal offenses can be seized and forfeited under the state's asset forfeiture law. Taking away the tools criminals use to commit crimes and the profits from those crimes are ways to deter and impede criminal conduct. Proceeds from this auction will be used by state and county law enforcement agencies to combat crime.

Employees (and their immediate family members) of county police departments, county prosecuting attorney's offices, and the Department of the Attorney General are not eligible to purchase forfeited property.

Anyone having information about individuals who are profiting from criminal activity should call the Crime Stoppers hotline at 955-8300.
