News Release 2011-7

Department of the Attorney General will auction forfeited property

HONOLULU –A public auction of property forfeited to the State of Hawaii will be held on April 30, 2011 in the Pikake room at the Neal S. Blaisdell Center. The property to be sold includes a 2003 Honda Civic 2 door coupe, a 2003 Nissan Sentra 4 door sedan, a 2003 Chevrolet Monte Carlo 2 door coupe, a 2003 Ford Focus 4 door sedan, a 2001 Honda Accord 4 door sedan, a 2001 Chrysler Sebring 2 door coupe, and other vehicles. Other miscellaneous items include jewelry, electric and acoustic musical instruments, power tools, electronics and more.

The property to be sold may be inspected starting at 11:00 a.m. The auction, conducted by Rosen Auctions, will begin at noon. For a list of the property, visit www.rosenauctions.com.

The auction is the result of ongoing efforts by state and county law enforcement agencies to fight crime by seizing and forfeiting assets used or acquired in connection with criminal activities. Assets that were used in, or obtained from, the commission of certain criminal offenses can be seized and forfeited under the state's asset forfeiture law. Taking away the tools criminals use to commit crimes and the profits from those crimes are ways to deter and impede criminal conduct. Proceeds from this auction will be used by state and county law enforcement agencies to combat crime.

Employees (and their immediate family members) of county police departments, county prosecuting attorney's offices, and the Department of the Attorney General are not eligible to purchase forfeited property.

Anyone having information about individuals who are profiting from criminal activity should call the Crime Stoppers hotline at 955-8300.
