AFFECTING THE SUPPLY OF PETROLEUM
PRODUCTS

*Submitted to
The Twenty-Third State Legislature
Regular Session of 2005*

REPORT ON ANY SHORTAGE OR CONDITION AFFECTING THE SUPPLY OF PETROLEUM PRODUCTS

Section 486H-17, Hawaii Revised Statutes, enacted pursuant to Act 242, Session Laws of Hawaii 2004, provides in full as follows:

The attorney general shall immediately investigate any shortage or condition affecting the supply of any petroleum products or other matters relating to the requirements of this chapter and shall institute all appropriate criminal and civil actions and pursue all legal and equitable remedies that may be available to the State. The attorney general shall submit a report to the legislature regarding any shortage or condition affecting the supply of petroleum products.

The Attorney General hereby reports to the Legislature that since the enactment of section 486H-17, the Department of the Attorney General has not been informed of, discovered, nor become aware of any “shortage or condition affecting the supply of any petroleum products.”
