WAI‘ALAE ELEMENTARY STUDENTS RAISE FUNDS FOR MISSING CHILD CENTER–HAWAI‘I

HONOLULU – The entire fifth grade class of Wai‘alae Elementary Public Charter School in Kaimuki presented Attorney General Doug Chin today with a check for $1,731.22 to support the Missing Child Center-Hawai‘i after making and selling items on their own to support a non-profit organization.

“We are grateful to these students for selecting the Missing Child Center-Hawai‘i this year,” said Chin. “These kids are making a difference in the community.” Students selected the Missing Child Center-Hawai‘i because monies would be dedicated to purchasing a new search-and-rescue dog for the Honolulu Police Department. Reba the bloodhound is waiting to clear her health screening and will arrive in Hawai‘i within weeks.

The Missing Child Center-Hawai‘i, an agency within the state Attorney General’s office, helps locate and recover missing children, reunite missing children with their families, and prevent child abductions in Hawai‘i. To contact the Center, call (808) 586-1449 or see the website at <http://ags.hawaii.gov/cpja/mcch>.
