

The Department of the Attorney General announces the following upcoming training events for the Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) agencies and service providers:

Intersection of Domestic Violence,
Sexual Assault and Human Trafficking

Presenter(s): Morgan Shaw and Sandi Capuano Morrison
Ho'omaluhia/Institute on Violence, Abuse and Trauma (IVAT)

>Honolulu: June 26, 2018

>Maui: June 27, 2018

>Hilo: June 28, 2018

>Kauai: July 2, 2018

Working with Underserved Populations

Presenter: Stacey Moniz, Trainer/Consultant

>Maui: July 12, 2018

>Kauai: July 16, 2018

>Hilo: July 18, 2018

>Honolulu, July 19, 2018

New Presenter

Vicarious Trauma and Resilience Training

Presenter: Kevin O'Brien,
Director of Disaster Behavioral Health Services,
District of Columbia (Ret.)

>Honolulu: August 3, 2018

>Kauai: August 6, 2018

>Hilo: August 7, 2018

>Maui: August 8, 2018

All training events will be held from 8:30 am to 3:30 pm. CPJAD/VOCA will be sending out registration details three weeks prior to each event. Lanai/Molokai and Kona participants will be reimbursed for travel expenses. See instructions on Registration Form for more information. Contact for the training events is Planning Specialist Tony Wong at anthony.wl.wong@hawaii.gov.

