

THE INTERNET

has opened up a world of information and lets kids connect to websites and people from many different countries.

Just as you follow rules to be safe in your school and neighborhood, you need to follow rules to stay safe online.

THE INTERNET

has opened up a world of information and lets kids connect to websites and people from many different countries.

Just as you follow rules to be safe in your school and neighborhood, you need to follow rules to stay safe online.

DEPARTMENT OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

Keeping Safe in Cyberspace

Here are some Internet Safety tips to go over with your child:

SMART Zone

✓ Create a Safe SCREEN NAME

Don't use your real name.

✓ Create a Strong PASSWORD

Only share your password with your parents and guardians.

✓ Use an IMAGE

Don't use your real life photo.

✓ Use GOOD MANNERS

All Internet users are real people with real feelings.

DANGER Zone

PROTECT Personal Information

Don't share information such as your name, birthdate, address, school, home phone number or cell phone number online.

AVOID Meeting People Online

Never meet face-2-face with someone from the Internet.

THINK Before Posting

All Internet users are real people with real feelings.

STOP the Cyberbully

1. Say STOP! 2. Block the cyberbully. 3. Tell a trusted adult.

DEPARTMENT OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

Keeping Safe in Cyberspace

Here are some Internet Safety tips to go over with your child:

SMART Zone

✓ Create a Safe SCREEN NAME

Don't use your real name.

✓ Create a Strong PASSWORD

Only share your password with your parents and guardians.

✓ Use an IMAGE

Don't use your real life photo.

✓ Use GOOD MANNERS

All Internet users are real people with real feelings.

DANGER Zone

PROTECT Personal Information

Don't share information such as your name, birthdate, address, school, home phone number or cell phone number online.

AVOID Meeting People Online

Never meet face-2-face with someone from the Internet.

THINK Before Posting

All Internet users are real people with real feelings.

STOP the Cyberbully

1. Say STOP! 2. Block the cyberbully. 3. Tell a trusted adult.