

00:27:57 Carrie Ann Shirota: Please invite the Onsite Monitor at Saguaro to an Oversight Commission meeting. This request was made last year and we never heard from the Onsite Monitor.

00:28:23 Kawika Patterson: mpatterson@dhs.hawaii.gov

00:32:17 Zoom user: Thank you all. I'm overwhelmed right now with emotions. But I do thank you all for the support.

00:40:45 Carrie Ann Shirota: Re: IVII Status of inmate ID project - please consider inviting and making a data request to the Reentry staff within PSD for data relating to compliance under the Reentry Law.

00:41:22 Carrie Ann Shirota: The Oversight Commission should have unfettered access to PSD records.

00:42:34 Diana (she/her): How often are the audits conducted?

00:43:04 theodore sakai: The audits are conducted every three months.

00:45:12 Kylie Akiona: If anyone is interested, Faith Action is hosting a panel on the lived effects cash bail featuring impacted voices next week Wednesday, 10/27 from 6-7:30pm:

00:45:15 Carrie Ann Shirota: The audits conducted with Mark Patterson are significantly different than the more recent audits. Now, the audits are like checklists. Previously, it was more substantive and had narratives relating to STG (Security threat groups). Time to evaluate the current format, and whether it is effective.

00:47:15 Diana (she/her): Doesn't the Oversight Commission have any influence on the nature of the PSD audits?

00:53:48 Carrie Ann Shirota: Shows that there is interest in making profit off of incarcerating people. Release the information to the public of the 22 responses.

00:55:15 kat brady: Bricks and mortar...where is the discussion of the human beings who are in their proposed cages?

00:55:24 Carrie Ann Shirota: When in early 2022? The Oversight Commission and the Legislature should be aware of specific dates particularly if the Oversight Commission decides to support a MORATORIUM.

00:56:49 Carrie Ann Shirota: So, AI's strategy is to push this through before the 2022 Legislative session? What weight will be given to Public testimony at the public forum?

00:57:57 Diana (she/her): There has to be collaboration with community groups that know the situation on the ground.

00:58:34 Carrie Ann Shirota: Architects Hawaii Ltd.

00:59:26 Carrie Ann Shirota: The Consultants report specifically calls into question the legality of P3s public- private partnership.

01:00:11 Carrie Ann Shirota: How much money has been currently spend on planning for OCCC?

01:01:14 kat brady: P3s have a very ominous records where states have ended up paying way more than if public funding had been used. This is all about donations and contracts to favored entities. Very disingenuous. kat

01:07:08 Lee Curran She, Her: Absolutely Martha!

01:07:31 Mike Town (retired judge): Please see in re Humphrey unanimous California Supreme Court

01:07:55 Daniel Mistak: This is why DHS and DOH need to be here

01:08:23 Kylie Akiona: Illinois completely got rid of cash bail!

01:09:05 Daniel Mistak: It isn't DPS' job alone to create alternatives to social issues when we have social systems that are essential for resolving this

01:09:10 kat brady: Yes, there are social services that have been cut resulting in jails being housing and mental health centers. Policies by the legislature caused the incarceration crisis. Let's be honest! Kat

01:09:11 Daniel Mistak: Don't silo solutions

01:10:02 Daniel Mistak: <https://law.justia.com/cases/california/supreme-court/2021/s247278.html>

01:15:59 Bettina Mehnert - AHL: For updates and reports on the planning process of OCCC, please visit: <http://dps.hawaii.gov/occc-future-plans/>

01:17:04 Bettina Mehnert - AHL: The summary of the RFI process can be found under the "reports and studies" tab.

01:18:02 lisa itomura - Deputy AG - Kory Maeda petition: In re Humphrey, 11 Cal.5th 135, Supreme Court of California, issued March 25, 2021

01:18:17 Diana (she/her): I hope the containers have adequate insulation and air conditioning to prevent heat stress. Also, it must be expensive to retrofit a container, esp. for temporary housing.

01:19:27 Daniel Mistak: West Hawaii ISS is, as far as I know, unstaffed.

01:26:05 Daniel Mistak: Pardon.I mean ISC!
01:28:25 Daniel Mistak: Those retirements happened last December.
01:28:26 robertmerce: This is the discussion we should have been having 6 years ago when the new jail was first discussed!
01:33:11 kat brady: Mahalo Chair. THIS IS WHAT THE COMMUNITY HAS BEEN ASKING FOR. How could we propose a prison without knowing who would be caged.
01:34:47 Lee Curran She, Her: I want to echo and amplify what Kat wrote. This is my first Commission meeting and I LOVE what I'm hearing!
01:38:45 Daniel Mistak: United Health Care is launching a justice initiative, and it might be worthwhile asking them to present to see how ISC and United can work together
01:44:27 Daniel Mistak: Pima, AZ, uses peer support funded through AZ Medicaid
01:53:03 kat brady: Community Alliance on Prisons is happy to help plan the public meeting.
01:55:08 kat brady: You have a very active and passionate community to help!
01:58:55 Lee Curran She, Her: PREACH Bob!
02:01:04 Daniel Mistak: I was just clapping for Bob again!
02:02:14 Diana (she/her): Aloha, Bob, for your wisdom and clarity!
02:03:26 Erin Harbinson: Thank you for your interest, Ms. Brady and Commissioner Torney. I am pleased to hear of your interest regarding CJRI activities. I will follow-up with you and Chair Patterson.
