

00:14:42 Monica Espitia (she/her): I don't think so.
00:14:56 Monica Espitia (she/her): Sorry^ wrong chat.
00:24:00 kdayton: Can we please get an update on how successful the vaccination incentive has been?
00:34:49 Angie McFarland: why is extended furlough not an option from Waiawa where they are community status?
00:35:58 Kawika Patterson: furlough is managed from the Community correctional centers.
00:37:09 Angie McFarland: my son is community status
00:48:28 kat brady: IV OCCC was skipped
00:52:47 kat brady: Wouldn't it be better for us to actually understand who is in OCCC before we talk about buildings?
00:53:36 Monica Espitia (she/her): Yes to that, Kat!
00:55:41 Angie McFarland: the system should have programs in place to prepare inmates for successful release. just based in my son's experience there has been really nothing.
00:56:40 kat brady: Mahalo Martha
00:57:09 Angie McFarland: how does one get involved?
00:58:12 Martha.t.torney@gmail.com: Angie, that is what we are advocating for and need to find out how best to make this happen. We don't have the answers at this time.
00:59:46 Monica Espitia (she/her): Stop reincarcerating for technical parole and probation violations, stop criminalizing poverty, start using unsecure bail...
01:02:22 Barbara Polk: Angie, we could all contact our legislators and attempt to educate them on our concerns. Also, talk with your friends and neighbors. A higher level of engagement is needed, but for now, that's a start for individuals.
01:04:03 Lee Curran She, Her: A HUGE Mahalo to everyone!
