

00:19:46 Diana .(she/her): Maybe suggest another possible panelist - Carrie Ann Shirota.
00:30:42 Carrie Ann Shirota: That is egregious!
00:30:56 Angie McFarland: so they could be released to work on the Monday adr the 25th?
00:32:31 Carrie Ann Shirota: Would the CDC recommend removing women from a community based closed setting with more space into a prison when they are at greater risk of infection and/or death?
00:42:24 Carrie Ann Shirota: May I please provide an update on SB3139 and HB2171? There is a provision relating to reporting of deaths in custody.
00:54:15 Carrie Ann Shirota: OIP - The OIP takes no position on the substance of this bill, but offers comments on the reporting requirements set out in proposed section 353-G, HRS, at bill pages 42-43. æ Testimony on HB 2171, HD2
00:57:56 Carrie Ann Shirota: This may be an opportunity to make this change in the law.
00:58:56 kdayton: Respectfully, OIP opines in the testimony being discussed by Carrie Ann that the names of inmates who die in custody are public under existing Hawaii law.
