

00:27:51 mike's iPad: Carrie Ann in waiting room

00:55:56 Diana B (she/her): The host can mute everyone, if necessary.

01:05:24 Carrie Ann Shirota: Building a new jail and continuing our current correctional practices and culture will result in the status quo. The conditions of overcrowding and violence at the Hawaii Youth Correctional Facility were ignored until the ACLU issued a report, and then filed a class action lawsuit. What can be done to implement system-wide changes within the adult system without having to resort to litigation and DOJ oversight?

01:09:01 Diana B (she/her): I am told that the new warden at WCCC has banned radio and books for the inmates. That seems very punitive, not restorative or therapeutic.

01:10:56 Carrie Ann Shirota: The Supreme Court also issued a decision today that takes away Miranda Right warnings by police.

01:13:28 mike's iPad: Thanks

01:13:57 Enorma Sass: I would just like to say that I love your wordings!
