

Departmental Vacancy Announcement

DEPARTMENT OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

DEPUTY ATTORNEY GENERAL

Position No. 124341 & 124342

Division with the Vacancy:

Special Investigation and Prosecution

Opening Date: Monday, September 26, 2022

Last Day to File Applications: Continuous until needs are met

Summary of Duties:

This position is located in the Special Investigation & Prosecution Division (SIPD) of the Department of the Attorney General. The Department of the Attorney General is responsible for the provision of advice, counseling, and representation of the State in civil and legislative matters, administrative and regulatory enforcement, and the investigation and prosecution of criminal offenses. SIPD is dedicated to investigating and prosecuting matters that involve economic crimes, human trafficking, and corruption.

This Division will supplement the Department's Criminal Justice Division's capacity to investigate and prosecute criminal cases involving economic crime, fraud, human trafficking, and public corruption involving elected and appointed officials, government employees, and those doing business with government entities or handling State monies, such as matters involving campaign spending fraud and bribery.

SIPD's criminal enforcement actions may also present the opportunity to review government agency procedures, identify gaps, and make recommendations to ensure better compliance with the law and enhance efficacy.

This deputy attorney position is assigned to handle criminal prosecution of cases, particularly those involving fraud, corruption, economic crimes and human trafficking.

Minimum Requirements:

- Education/Experience: Graduate from an accredited law school.
- Knowledge/Ability: Knowledge of applicable State and Federal laws, rules, regulations and computer applications/software. Awareness of both Federal District and State Court of Rules of civil and criminal procedure, including Local Rules of Federal District Court and State Circuit Court Rules. Ability to perform legal research, analyze, manage, produce and organize documents as needed, understand and apply administrative rules and court rules; give and receive oral and written instructions; use computer. Appropriate and current legal writing skills, including the ability to write logically and persuasively. Ability to set personal and professional example; leadership, supervisory or administrative ability or knowledge; strong organizational skills; good communication skills.

- License/Certificate: Active Hawaii State Bar License to practice law in all courts of the State of Hawaii and the United States District Court for the District of Hawaii.

The information you provide will be used to determine whether you meet public employment requirements and the minimum qualification requirements in the Class Specifications. As required by Federal and/or State laws, we do not discriminate on the basis of age, sex (including gender identity or expression), religion, race, color, ancestry, national origin, disability, marital status, veteran's status, sexual orientation, arrest and court record, citizenship, genetic information or any other protected characteristic. The State of Hawaii is an equal opportunity employer and complies with applicable State and Federal laws relating to employment practices.

Physical/Mental Requirements: Applicants must be able to perform the essential functions of the position effectively and safely, with or without reasonable accommodation.

Reasonable Accommodation: Qualified applicants with special needs who can perform the essential functions of the advertised position are encouraged to apply. The State of Hawaii is committed to making reasonable accommodations on a case-by-case basis. Applicants seeking reasonable accommodations should be ready to discuss the accommodation sought so that a determination can be made that such accommodation is reasonable and would not cause the employer undue hardship. Call 586-1236 for more information.

Criminal History Background Check: Individuals who are recommended for hire are required to undergo a criminal history record clearance and other checks, as applicable.

Internal Complaint: Applicants will be notified of their status. Applicants who do not agree with a decision or action taken by the State Department of the Attorney General Human Resources Office may file an Internal Complaint with the Department of the Attorney General. Information about the Internal Complaint Procedure (ICP) and required form can be found on the ATG intranet.

COVID-19 Vaccination Requirement: As a condition of employment with the State of Hawai'i, each qualified candidate who has been given a conditional offer of employment must show proof of full COVID-19 vaccination and shall be fully vaccinated by his/her/their employment start date. A reasonable accommodation will be provided if requested by a candidate and it is determined through an interactive process that pregnancy, a qualifying disability, or a sincerely held religious belief prevents the candidate from receiving a COVID-19 vaccination.
