HAWAI'I TO RECEIVE PORTION OF $720 MILLION NATIONWIDE SETTLEMENT FROM EIGHT OPIOID DRUG MAKERS

News Release 2025-76

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
July 10, 2025

HONOLULU — Attorney General Anne Lopez today announced a nationwide settlement, totaling approximately $720 million, with eight drug makers that manufactured opioid pills and worsened the nationwide opioid crisis. Hawai'i could receive up to $2.4 million in all.

“This settlement marks a critical step in holding opioid manufacturers accountable for role they played in fueling the opioid epidemic,” said Deputy Attorney General Christopher Han with the Department of the Attorney General's Commerce and Economic Development Division. “While no amount of money can undo the harm, this agreement would bring funding for much-needed resources to support addiction treatment, recovery services and prevention efforts.”

The eight defendants and the total amount they will pay in funds to address the opioid crisis as part of the deal are:

- Mylan (now part of Viatris): $284,447,916 paid over nine years
- Hikma: $95,818,293 paid over one to four years

- Amneal: $71,751,010 paid over 10 years
- Apotex: $63,682,369 paid in a single year
- Indivior: $38,022,450 paid over four years
- Sun: $30,992,087 paid over one to four years
- Alvogen: $18,680,162 paid in a single year
- Zydus: $14,859,220 paid in a single year

Seven of the companies (not including Indivior) are prohibited from promoting or marketing opioids and opioid products, making or selling any product that contains more than 40 mg of oxycodone per pill, and are required to put in place a monitoring and reporting system for suspicious orders. Indivior has agreed to not manufacture or sell opioid products for the next 10 years, but it will be able to continue marketing and selling medications to treat opioid use disorder.
